Whisky, Frisky,
Hippity hop,
Up he goes
To the tree top!

Whirly twirly
Round and round,
Down he scamper
To the ground.

Furly, curly,
What a tail!
Tall as a feather
Broad as a snail!

Where's his supper?
In the shell,
Snappity, Crackity,
Out it fell.

Explanation The squirrel

The poet describe the movements of a Squirrel as it goes up and down its tree. The poet uses many nonsense words like 'whisky', 'twisly', 'furly', 'Curly' and so on to create a sense of rhythm in the poem. The squirrel is playful and full of energy, and it climbs up the tree. Then it moves ground and ground before it comes scampering to the ground. Its is fluffy and curled up, and the poet says that it is tall as a feather and broad as a snail. the squirrel has his dinner of a nut, which comes out when it cracks a shell open.
